Subject: Three Crowns Golf Course Ranked #2 for Wyoming

For the second year in a row, Three Crowns Golf Course in Casper has been lauded as the #2-ranked golf course in Wyoming by Golf Week Magazine, one of the nation's most prestigious golf publications.

"There are so many great golf courses in Wyoming and it's an honor to be selected again as one of the best. This ranking is clearly a testament to the entire Three Crowns team that we have put together. The maintenance of the golf course is obviously impeccable and Scott McMillion and his staff do an unbelievable job maintaining it. The service level in the golf shop & dining room, as well as our outside player services team is second to none and it's truly humbling to lead a team of such dedicated and qualified people." –Steve Johnson

Three Crowns Golf Course boasts a par 72, 7,065 yard Robert Trent Jones, Jr. Championship design. The course has 110 acres of manicured turf and 45 acres of native grasses. The greens are constructed to USGA standards with A-1 bentgrass surfaces. Kentucky Bluegrass carpets the tees, fairways and roughs. 61 bunkers with dazzling white sand and 8 blue water lakes compliment the course. A 13 acre Practice Facility with a course condition practice green, two bunkers, short game area and 300 yard driving range provide golfers an excellent opportunity to improve their game.

Three Crowns offers many services and various member packages designed to appease golfers of all ages and skill-levels. Their Season Pass Membership, available for only 5 payments of $300, allows unlimited golf from April to October, as well as unlimited rounds at the guest rate for friends, a 20% discount at the golf shop and more. Additionally, Three Crowns offers a Corporate Package, a Gold Card offering multiple savings and benefits, various lessons from their certified Director of Instruction, Mike Johnson, and more.

All of these reasons are what led Golf Week Magazine to once again appoint Three Crowns Golf Course the #2-ranked course in Wyoming. It is an honor they do not
